Confidentiality and Data Protection

We will treat all your personal information as private and confidential to us and anyone else involved in the normal course of underwriting, managing and administering your insurance, any subsequent claim or renewal, even when you are no longer a customer. We will not give anyone else any personal information except on your instructions or authority, or where we are required to do so by law, or by virtue of our regulatory requirements. In some circumstances it will be necessary for us to pass on your data to third parties, this may include, but is not limited to, underwriters, claims administrators and loss adjusters. Your signing of the application form gives us permission to pass on your personal information, solely for the purposes referred to above, including the claims handling process which involves organizations located outside the European Union, adhering to European Data Protection Guidelines. Under the Data Protection Act 1998 you have the right to see personal information about you that we hold in our records. If you have any queries please write to us at our usual office address.

Our Service

Your insurance is provided and administered by: DSA Europe SARL, 82150, France. You will not receive advice or a recommendation from us with regards to this insurance, you will need to make your own choice about how to proceed.

Language used

The English language will be used for all communications, the contractual terms and conditions, and any information we are required to supply to you, before and during the duration of the contract.

Your Duty to Give Information

It is Your responsibility to provide complete and accurate information to insurers when You take out Your insurance policy, throughout the life of Your policy, and when You renew Your insurance.

It is important that You ensure that all statements You make on proposal forms, statements of fact, claim forms and other documents are full and accurate.

Please note that if You fail to disclose any information or change in circumstances to Your insurers which could influence the cost, or their decision to accept Your insurance, this could invalidate Your insurance cover, and could mean that part or all of a claim may be not be paid.

Your Data

Your data will be protected by us in accordance with the Data Protection Act.

You have the right to access any personal information that we hold in respect of You. You also have the right to amend or delete any information We hold about you, if you believe that it is inaccurate or out of date.

In some circumstances it will be necessary for us to pass on your data to third parties to enable us to underwrite, manage and administer your insurance coverage and any subsequent claim or renewal. This may include, but is not limited to, Underwriters, Claims Administrators and Loss Adjusters.

Your signing of the application form (physically or electronically) gives us permission to pass on your personal information, solely for the purposes referred to above, which includes any sensitive information, such as your medical information.
